THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city for yesterday, as reported by C. W. Brandon, was as follows: 7 a. m., 25 degrees above; 12 m., 44 degrees above; 4 p. m., 58 degrees above; 8 p. m., 43 degrees above.

ABOUT THE CITY.

The Juvenile hose company received a lot of handsome new badges yesterday.

N. J. McConnell, the well-known Helena architect, is stopping in this city for a few days.

William Cameron yesterday received a dispatch announcing the death of his mother.

Officer McManus yesterday arrested Jack McDonald, who was acting in a wild and woolly manner.

Alderman King made a strong play for the labor vote yesterday by walking up the center of Main street with a pick on his shoulder.

A special meeting of the Anaconda Hook & Ladder company will be held at the fire hall to-night for the purpose of completing arrangements to visit Butte on Monday evening.

The next attraction at Evans opera house will be the Carl King combination, which comes here for a two nights' engagement, Feb. 29 and March 1.

D. J. Hennessy of Butte is in this city attending to the transfer of the Hennessy Mercantile company's business to the Copper City Commercial company.

Deputy Sheriff Pat McGraw yesterday brought John Daly up from Carroll and locked him up in the city jail. Daly has been making a first class nuisance of himself of late.

All members of Washington camp No. 2, P. O. S. of A., who intend to attend the ball to be given by the Butte brethren on Monday evening are requested to meet at the Mattie block hall at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Dixie Raymond, a wayward nymph du pave, was arrested yesterday charged with consorting with Sam Landry and other bad persons. She was fined $25 and costs. The officers are after Mr. Landry and his female associates on the row.

Owing to the withdrawal of Dan O'Leary from the race in Butte it is not probable that any one from this city will be seen inside of Butte's pavilion today. Arrangements had been made by the Montana Union railway to run a special train from Butte to Anaconda to-night, leaving Butte at 11:30 o'clock. But as O'Leary has since retired from the contest it is not likely that many will go from here to see the race in which Lacourse has everything his own way.

This morning at the Methodist Episcopal church, Mrs. Stout of Butte will deliver an address upon the subject of "The Gospel of Luke for Women." In the evening a union temperance service will be held in the Presbyterian church in the interests of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Stout and Miss Julia Darrow of Butte will deliver brief addresses, the former "A Talk to Young Men," the latter on "The Work and Aim of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union."

IN NEW FORM.

The Hennessy Mercantile Company Makes Some Changes.

For several years past the D. J. Hennessy Mercantile company has conducted a large and prosperous dry goods and clothing business in this city in the Mattie block, on the corner of First and Oak streets. This company has now been reorganized under the name of the Copper City Commercial company, and the business will be hereafter conducted on a very much more extensive scale.

Yesterday the store was reopened under the new firm's management. The entire place has been refitted, enlarged and improved. Since the change has been in contemplation the old stock has been almost entirely disposed of and when the doors of the fine store were thrown open again to the public the shelves were loaded with an entirely new stock of goods.

On the eastern side of the store on the first floor are the dry goods and notions departments. Everything is new and of the very latest style and pattern. In the rear on the same floor is the custom and ready made clothing department, where a splendid line of the very finest new patterns of cloth is in stock.

On the other side of this room is a large stock of the latest styles in hats, caps and gents' furnishings.

The other large store room on the west is given up entirely to groceries and provisions. The Hennessy company did not deal in groceries and this stock has just been purchased in the East. In every particular, therefore, the stock is fresh and good. The basement beneath this department is jammed full with several carloads of canned goods, preserved meats and provisions. In the rear of the grocery department stands a splendid refrigerator which has been made upon the very best plan for the purpose of keeping butter fresh and pure. There is not a finer grocery store or a better stock of groceries in any city in Montana. Everything is neat, new and nobly. H. A. Mayall, late of St. Paul, is in charge of this department and is ably assisted by Charles McDonald, formerly with P. J. Brophy of Butte.

The basement of the eastern store is occupied by the carpet and ladies' furnishing department. The carpet room is very complete. It is 30x50 feet and is well lighted. The company proposes to make its carpet department a special feature to attract trade. A splendid new stock of carpets of all grades has just been purchased; some of the patterns are very attractive. The ladies' suits and furnishings branch of the business is also well stocked with the latest novelties. From top to bottom the entire establishment is a model of neatness and convenience.

The old employees of the Hennessy company will remain with the new firm, and a number of others have been added. Yesterday was the opening day and the handsome stores were crowded with busy purchasers.

FOR THE SCHOOL LIBRARY.

An Entertainment That Will Deserve Liberal Patronage.

March 3 has been decided upon as the date for the presentation of the comedy "Engaged," which some of Anaconda's society young people have been rehearsing for some time. This play is one of Gilbert's finest farce-comedies, and is brimful of fun from one end to the other. The cast of characters is excellent and will be certain to bring out all the hits of the play. Wade Chilcot has the leading part, and with Mrs. L. G. Smith, Misses Durston and Gleason and Mrs. Hickey in the female roles, the play is sure to be a success.

A part of the receipts of the presentation is to be given to the library of the public schools. This fact should assure the performance a liberal patronage, as there is no more essential feature in the public school equipment than the library. The city schools are not well supplied in this department, and it is to be hoped that the public will take this opportunity to contribute to the library fund.

Aside from this, the play itself should prove a big attraction in the amusement line, as the performers are well-known young people of ability. The play is being prepared under the direction of Prof. Waldemar Dalbaum, who has a high reputation as stage manager and actor.

AT BILLINGS.

Ladies of the Town Give a Leap Year Party.

When this was over the entire party was invited to the house of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tompkins, where all enjoyed themselves so much that they did not disperse till between 2 and 3 o'clock. ## TENNYSON'S LATEST.

The laurels of royalty hang heavy upon the head of England's aged poet.—Brooklyn Office. Lord Alfred's poem on the death of the Duke of Avondale appears to be another case of the ill results of neglecting good advice.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Lord Tennyson's poem on the death of the Duke of Clarence was only 17 lines in length, but very gushing for its size. The criticisms it has been attracting in the London journals are generally longer and much more pointed.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The 17 trashy lines in which Lord Tennyson commemorates the virtues of the Duke of Clarence are much better than his poem of a few years ago entitled "The Fleet," or to put it more correctly—they are not so utterly bad as "The Fleet."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch. The critics are laughing at Baron Tennyson's lines eulogizing the late Duke of Clarence, and the adjectives "tender, reverent and pure," which the poet applies to the young prince, especially excite their mirth. Undoubtedly the verses are baroque rather than Byronic.—New York World.

Baron Tennyson's poem on the death of the Duke of Clarence is ridiculed as "gush." Maybe it is, but Mr. Tennyson has written some of the best poetry in the English language. It should be remembered that it is very hard for a baron to write poetry, especially when he is writing it as a baron for his stipend as a poet laureate.—St. Louis Republic.

A remedy that cures when others fail—Beebe's, C. W. Brandon's drug store.

The king and queen of Italy have abandoned the idea of visiting England on account of the death of the Duke of Clarence.

CONSTIPATION.

Afflicts half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. E. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Petaluma; H. S. Winn, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S., I am in splendid shape. It has done wonderful things for me. People similarly troubled should try it and be convinced."
